3 Scope of personal information we collect

MDS acts as a Data Processor with regard to motor insurance data. MDS receives motor vehicle insurance policy data directly from its customers and processes this onward to the government's Motor Insurance Database. With respect to this data the data originator is the Data Controller and the point of contact for privacy enquiries.

With regard to non-MID data, MDS has no direct relationship with private individuals. In the normal process of business MDS retains contact information for customers:

- Full name
- Business name
- Business address
- Telephone number
- Business email address

This information is normally received directly from the individual.
